

Rules of Department of Economic Development
 Division 155—Office of Health
 Care Providers
 Chapter 1—Certifying Entities

Title	Page
4 CSR 155-1.010 Certifying Entity—Respiratory Care Practitioners.....	3
4 CSR 155-1.020 Certifying Entity—All Occupational Therapists .....	3

Title 4—DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
Division 155—Office of Health Care Providers
Chapter 1—Certifying Entities

4 CSR 155-1.010 Certifying Entity—
Respiratory Care Practitioners

PURPOSE: This rule recognizes the certifying entity for all respiratory care practitioners.

(1) As a result of a public hearing conducted February 14, 1991 and pursuant to section 334.735, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 1990), the department recognizes the National Board for Respiratory Care as the certifying entity for all respiratory care practitioners.

(2) Certification of a respiratory care practitioner by the National Board for Respiratory Care shall be accepted by the Division of Professional Registration as establishing qualifications for registration.

(3) As the certifying entity, the National Board for Respiratory Care shall pay a one (1) time fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to cover the cost of applying for recognition as a certifying entity.

Auth: section 334.737, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 1990). Original rule filed March 15, 1991, effective Aug. 30, 1991.

4 CSR 155-1.020 Certifying Entity—All Occupational Therapists

PURPOSE: This rule recognizes the certifying entity for all occupational therapists including certified occupational therapy assistants.

(1) As a result of a public hearing conducted February 22, 1991 and pursuant to section 334.735, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 1990), the department recognizes the American Occupational Therapy Certification Board as the certifying entity for all occupational therapists.

(2) Certification of all occupational therapists by the American Occupational Therapy Certification Board shall be accepted by the Division of Professional Registration as establishing qualifications for registration.

(3) As the certifying entity, the American Occupational Therapy Certification Board shall pay a one (1) time fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to cover the cost of applying for recognition as a certifying entity.

(4) A credentialed assistant shall mean a certified occupational therapy assistant, pursuant to sections 334.735—334.748, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 1990).

Auth: sections 334.737.2. and 4. and 334.740.3., RSMo (Cum. Supp. 1990). Original rule filed March 15, 1991, effective Aug. 30, 1991.